OPERATION SANTA CLAUS 2010 REPORT

Joint Organiser:

Invest a little love

Bryan Curtis of RTHK, General Manager of Grand Hyatt Gordon Fuller, Selina Tsang Pou Siu- mei, Secretary for Justice Wong Yan-lung, Chief Executive Officer & Managing Director of SCMP Group Hui Kuok and former Director of Broadcasting Franklin Wong Wah-kay attend the Operation Santa Claus 2011 closing ceremony at Grand Hyatt Hotel Hong Kong.

Like all successful cities, Hong Kong is not without its fair share of disadvantaged people. Operation Santa Claus (OSC) is one of the most recognised charity efforts in the city and aims to ensure that the less fortunate share in the fruits of the SAR's progress.

Jointly organised by the South China Morning Post (SCMP) and Radio Television Hong Kong (RTHK), the initiative has been brightening needy people's lives every year since 1988. Running from 16 November 2010 to 20 January 2011, OSC's 23rd and most recent campaign boasted the wife of Hong Kong's Chief Executive, Mrs. Selina Tsang, as its honorary patron. As in previous years, OSC 2010 generated huge daily publicity for the worthy causes it benefited in both the SCMP and on RTHK Radio 3. By the time the campaign reached its conclusion, generous corporations, clubs, associations, schools and individuals across Hong Kong had raised over HK$13,000,000. The 2010 sum brings the total to over HK$154,000,000 raised by kind-hearted Hongkongers for 119 needy causes over the last 23 years.

“As a lawyer and Secretary for Justice, I am the protector of all charities under common law. I will do my best to protect charities under the law, but I cannot give the charities the power and ability they need to achieve their goals – but you can,” “Santa Claus should be very grateful to you, for you have helped transform him from being an icon of commercialism to a symbol of love, generosity and goodwill.”

Donors & Fundraising Events

OSC 2010 Major Donors

In 2010, some 21 leading local corporations and organisations each made individual donations of HK$150,000 or more. Chief among them was Bank of America Merrill Lynch (BoAML). OSC 2010's Top Corporate Fundraiser, BoAML raised over HK$1,700,000 last year from hosting a golf-day, a special in-office OSC Golf Day, plus a charity pin sale and spare change collection campaigns.

Several other major corporate donors deserve our gratitude for generously organising successful fundraising initiatives during 2010. They include Morgan Stanley which raised over HK$1,500,000 with their eighth directors' choir performing in public, the 13th five-a-side football tournament which raised over HK$1,000,000, Wing Ding who hosted a squash tournament which contributed over HK$1,000,000, UBS hosted 'Hong Kong Open' with professional golfer Simon Dyson's hole-in-one, JP Morgan exchanged valuable knowledge with beneficiaries from a social enterprise and raised money by holding a raffle with a magic twist and RBS Coutts Bank invited beneficiaries to hunt for Christmas treasure in its Central HQ. Our appreciation must also go to Manulife who organised a Christmas party at an OSC beneficiary's elderly centre, and to the Hong Kong Sanatorium & Hospital who held a Christmas food party. Equally worthy of commendation were Sino Land and leading local artist Ms. Lucia Cheung who raised some HK$160,000 during a special "Garden of Joy" art exhibition and charity sale featuring 21 specially donated paintings.

A first-time OSC major donor, Melco International Development Ltd., showed its support for OSC by organising a free luncheon for beneficiaries at Aberdeen's legendary Jumbo Floating Restaurant. Another first-time OSC major donor, Rothschild (Hong Kong) Ltd., raised funds for the needy by hosting a charity auction during its 2010 Christmas party.

"It is in fact an iconic project for society. All along we have been telling true stories of real people ... to motivate people to give, and it works. Hong Kong people are very busy, pursuing different things in life, but when they hear the story about a sick, dying child, they will act. So Operation Santa Claus is a good platform, a good vehicle for people to act." "It's still one of the iconic charity functions, one that is so creative and that has so much fun."

Logos of major donors for OSC 2010 featured on Christmas tree published in the City section of SCMP for the whole of December 2010.

OSC's continued effectiveness in helping the less fortunate would never have been possible without its generous long-term corporate supporters. Specific thanks must go to Swire (a donor of 15 years' standing), plus Bank of America Merrill Lynch, Five-A-Side Football Tournament, JP Morgan, Morgan Stanley and UBS AG (all donors of 10 years' standing).

To acknowledge the major donors, their corporate logos were featured on OSC Christmas trees in the City section of SCMP between 1 Dec 2010 - 1 Jan 2011.

Corporate donors

In all, some 63 leading local corporations' efforts on behalf of OSC 2010 succeeded in generating HK$718,974.99 for the less fortunate. Standouts in this area included The Link which arranged a charity sale of limited edition Doraemon gifts at its shopping malls; GREAT who offered a charity sale of selected items and Watson's Wine Cellar, who offered a charity sale of selected wines. GM Metal Packaging Ltd., Island Bar and Starlit Way Ltd. were among the many other companies that made generous cash donations.

Clubs & Associations

Last year, 13 local clubs and associations donated a total of HK$409,100.50. This figure represents a handsome increase over the amount this sector raised during OSC 2009. Clubs and associations who deserve special thanks include The Police Tactical Unit, who won last year's most Creative Team Award for hosting morale-boosting activities which raised over HK$60,000.

The clubs who supported OSC for the first time in 2010 included Hong Kong Football Club which donated HK$125,000 to celebrate its 125th anniversary and The Progressive Indian Business Group Kowloon. Other notable donors included the Royal Hong Kong Yacht Club's Letters to Santa Claus initiative, the Liechtenstein Princely Navy's charity night, the OSC Pub Crawl in Lan Kwai Fong and the Hash House Harriers' OSC 2010 Run.

School Donors

OSC 2010 also saw 31 local primary and secondary schools contribute HK$635,406 to deserving local causes. Schools or educational institutions supporting OSC for the first time included Yew Chung International, Beacon Hill, King George V, Glenealy, Kennedy and Tak Nga Secondary schools and Think International. Special thanks must also go to 2010's Top School Fundraiser, Discovery Mind Kindergarten, for raising HK$141,430 during its sixth annual OSC charity walk and Most Creative School, St. Mark's School for hosting a famine camp and bazaar as well as football and basketball competitions and a talent show.

OSC University Ambassadors Programme 2010

In 2010, OSC joined forces with Hong Kong America Center in a new initiative aimed at recruiting two OSC Student Ambassadors from each of Hong Kong's eight leading local universities. The ultimate aim was to build awareness of OSC across campuses by featuring the ambassadors at high-profile donor events. In addition to nurturing leadership skills, the chosen students' efforts in encouraging their fellow undergraduates to organise fundraising events helped generate some HK$26,000 for good causes.

Individual donors

OSC 2010 also motivated some 300 individual donors to donate a total of HK$1,000,000 both on and offline.

Publicity and Marketing

The theme for OSC 2010 was “Invest a Little Love this Christmas”. While each year’s OSC campaign is only really at its most visible over the Christmas and New Year period, the hard behind-the-scenes work begins long, long before the first appeal is launched. To this end, recruitment proposal ads began appearing on May 3.

The campaign began really building momentum when coverage of beneficiary stories and fundraising events started in the SCMP and on RTHK Radio 3 from 16 November 2010 onwards. With insightful or heart-warming articles appearing every day until 20 January 2011, many readers and listeners who might have otherwise been untouched by the campaign were moved to donate. Further support was generated by RTHK features and podcasts highlighting not only beneficiaries, but also selected donors, student ambassadors and OSC 2010’s opening and closing ceremonies.

Many of OSC’s most generous supporters were still at school when the campaign began back in 1988. As a result, each successive OSC campaign has reserved a special place in its heart for younger donors. The 2010 campaign was no exception with Young Post’s coverage of school fundraising events running all the way through from 26 October 2010 to 21 January 2011.

To ensure everyone in the SAR was aware of the campaign and could play their part, OSC also designed a special poster and leaflet for schools and corporations. There was even a banner on the scmp.com website plus a dedicated OSC website at osc.scmp.com. With the whole world hooking up to the web, further electronic media included a brand new Facebook page which was updated daily, plus electronic direct mailings to SCMP subscribers and corporations.

“I’m very proud of my generation getting involved in charity as it surely shows that we are not putting all of our time into Facebook.”

OSC 2009 beneficiaries and their projects' achievements

In 2009, OSC donors helped fund key projects for six worthy causes in the areas of Children and Youth, the Elderly, the Environment, Medical Issues, and Physical and Mental Disabilities and the Community. By funding projects for the End Sexual Abuse Foundation, 8,016 primary students from 62 primary schools increased their understanding and awareness of sexual abuse. The safety and comfort of two elderly homes run by Sisters of the Immaculate Heart of Mary at Shamshuipo and Pokfulam have been improved thanks to the installation of 63 air ventilation devices & medical hoists and the purchase of wheelchairs. WWF - Hong Kong organised 20 visits for 508 beneficiaries from special homes to Hoi Ha marine life centre and concepts of marine conservation were taught. Little Life Warriors "Growing Stronger, Going Further" motto was realised by organising a variety of programmes & activities for members in a patients' exchange camp in China. For the Families of SMA Charitable Trust, a therapist was employed to monitor and assess 12 severely disabled children and several items of medical equipment were bought for patients' use. The Intellectually Disabled Education and Advocacy League's Cyber Café in Action was successfully set up to train disabled persons and to train them on elementary service skills.

OSC 2010 beneficiaries and their projects' highlights

Last year, 98 organisations submitted their detailed funding proposals for the OSC Selection Committee's consideration. Those who meticulously evaluated each submission included representatives of not only the SCMP and RTHK, but also representatives from the OSC major donors, Bank of America Merrill Lynch and UBS, and our independent charity advisor, the Hong Kong Council of Social Service. Following careful consideration, the committee finally selected 16 beneficiaries across the following seven areas:

Children and Youth

In 2010, OSC projects helped children and young people from a variety of groups. Key aims included preventing child abuse in families of parents with mental illnesses, helping AIDS-affected youngsters in China with medication care, sending care and love to children at paediatric wards and training Young Samaritans to provide peer group support.

Beneficiaries:

- Against Child Abuse Limited
- Chi Heng Foundation
- Hong Kong Red Cross Hospital Schools (Special School)
- The Samaritans

Medical Issues

OSC 2010 offered support to medical services targeting different groups of needy people in Hong Kong and mainland China including the provision of scans and treatment to affected young thalassaemia patients, medication subsidy and counseling services for families with rheumatic children, and the provision of free reconstructive surgery and post-operative care to children with cleft palates at Hangzhou and other remote rural areas of China.

Beneficiaries:

- Children's Thalassaemia Foundation
- Hong Kong Paediatric Rheumatism Association
- Operation Smile - China Medical Mission Limited

The Community

OSC 2010 funded a new Social Recycling Depot in Kwai Fong that provides jobs for rag-pickers and a foothold for social workers to reach and help the needy.

Beneficiaries:

- St. James' Settlement

Physical & Mental Disabilities

Apart from funding medical issues, OSC also supported projects covering physical and mental disabilities. This included funding a series of basic assessment initiatives and programmes that offered counseling to speech-impaired children, an education fund that subsidised school fees and essential expenses for visually impaired students from low income families in China, the setting up of a free-of-charge loans enabling students with communication disorders and physical disabilities to deploy customized technological devices to overcome their learning obstacles, and funding projects which provide employment training and placement, and initiatives to boost awareness of how to create a friendly working environment for hearing impaired people.

Beneficiaries:

- Asbury Methodist Social Service
- Hong Kong Blind Union
- Rehabaid Society
- SILENCE Limited

The Elderly

OSC helped purchase a rehabilitation van to serve seniors with mild or moderate dementia at a newly established Brain Health and Support Centre in Tseung Kwan O.

Beneficiaries:

- Hong Kong Alzheimer's Disease Association

The Environment

OSC 2010 funded the Wetlander project for World Wide Fund for Nature Hong Kong to support children and their family members from small group homes. The project will equip university ambassadors to teach underprivileged youngsters to interact with nature at Mai Po Nature Reserve and other local wetlands.

Beneficiaries:

- WWF - Hong Kong

Social Enterprises

In 2010, OSC also supported two social enterprises, one to employ their members to design, create and sell the LIFT merchandise, and the other to run a college mini-store thus providing both actual real work experience as well as employment opportunities to women from low income groups.

Beneficiaries:

- Direction Association for the Handicapped
- Hong Kong Women Workers' Association

Children's Thalassaemia Foundation

A 9-month Thalassaemia major baby girl gets a blood transfusion in hospital.

Hong Kong Women Workers' Association
