2015 Highlights

1. The biggest total in OSC's 28-year history:

The HK$21,302,162 Operation Santa Claus (OSC) raised in 2015 was the largest in its 28-year history with 29 major donors each pledging to donate over HK$150,000. The campaign also involved 18 major school donors and 22 beneficiaries.

2. A record-breaking number of beneficiaries

This year, OSC received 97 funding proposals, finally selecting 23 deserving projects from 22 very worthy beneficiary organisations. This was the highest number of beneficiaries since OSC began in 1988.

3. Another year of putting the 'fun' into fundraising

In 2015, over 40 innovative fundraising events were initiated either by OSC or its donors. New events such as OSC Flat Out Sleigh Ride and Money Talk Charity Breakfast were just one of the many fun ways OSC continued to attract new donors.

4. The pioneering of an innovative NGO Leadership Programme

OSC 2015 also persuaded 25 top executives from leading local NGOs to hone their leadership skills by attending classes and participating in the new OSC UBS NGO Leadership Programme's mentorship scheme.

5. Keeping administrative costs to the bare minimum

Thanks to the tireless efforts of the South China Morning Post (SCMP) and Radio Television Hong Kong (RTHK), administration expenses for OSC 2015 were once again kept to a minimum of roughly 3%. This ensures the lion's share of any money raised will directly benefit those who need it most.

What is Operation Santa Claus?

All good stories about gift-giving begin at Christmas, and Operation Santa Claus is no different.

Its roots stretch back to the 1960s when RTHK Radio 3 presenters performed public stunts to raise money for charity, such as jumping into Victoria Harbour, climbing flagpoles and giving rooftop poetry recitals. In the 1970s, the government gave Hongkongers the Community Chest – an official body for receiving charitable donations – which all but put an end to charity fundraising at Christmas.

By the 1980s, worries about Hong Kong's future sparked a renewed interest in charity fundraising as a way of spreading optimism and positivity throughout society. And so, in 1988, Operation Santa Claus was born.

The first campaign set out to raise HK$100,000. In 1989, the SCMP began covering beneficiaries' stories every day throughout December which helped smash the campaign's total target of HK$150,000 in the first week. Today, Operation Santa Claus (OSC) has raised over HK$250,000,000 for charitable causes since 1988, and has benefited some 237 worth projects. Now that is a tradition of gift-giving that the people Hong Kong can be proud of.

Mission:

To connect the local community to charities by leveraging the voices of two of the city's most respected media organisations, and to share the gift of hope to those who lack the means to improve their lives.

01 OSC 2015 OVERVIEW

THE CAMPAIGN

2015's two-month OSC campaign was themed 'Small Change, Big Change' and underlined the public's continuing remarkable warmth and concern for the all-too-often forgotten members of Hong Kong's society.

- The OSC 2015 campaign ran between 4 November 2015 – 19 January 2016.
- Opening ceremony took place on 4 November 2015 at the premises of launch event venue sponsor, the Hong Kong Observation Wheel. This year's other key sponsors included the US Federation of Meat (F&B) while the evening's Guest of Honour was Mrs. Regina LEUNG, wife of Chief Executive of HKSAR. Assisting her as Special Guests was Ms. Ada PONG, first runner-up in the 2015 Miss Hong Kong Pageant.
- OSC 2015's closing ceremony was held on 19 January 2016 and took the form of an evening cocktail reception at venue sponsor The AIA Great European Carnival.
- A record-breaking HK$21,302,162 – the biggest total in OSC's 28-year history – was announced to huge cheers from a large crowd of very impressed VIPs. Amongst them were Mr. LAM Woon-kwong, Convenor of the Non-Official Members of the Executive Council, and Mr. Clifford HART, Consul General of the United States of America to Hong Kong and Macau. Also in attendance were officiating guests, Mr. LEUNG Ka-wing, Director of Broadcasting, and Mr. Robin HU, Chief Executive Officer, SCMP Publishers, plus various representatives of OSC 2015's key donors and major beneficiaries.
- Having started life in 1988, OSC and its donors' compassion have now helped to raise some HK$250,000,000 and fund around 237 socially meaningful projects.
- Key beneficiaries of OSC 2015 were able to enjoy complimentary rides on The Hong Kong Observation Wheel during the two-month campaign period. They were later invited to test their skills in free games on The AIA Great European Carnival's charity day.

FUNDRAISING

- OSC's heart and soul has always been the uniting of thousands of compassionate donors in a shared community event. Leveraging the huge reservoirs of goodwill it has built up over the years, OSC has forged unbreakable links with many large corporate donors and across the local business world. The organisers of OSC 2015 remain grateful that despite the prevailing tough economic environment, many companies went out of their way to pledge their donations as early as October 2015. Ultimately, 29 major donors each donated over HK$150,000.

- OSC 2015 also inspired over 40 donor organisations to arrange events that involved their staff, students and the community at large.

- This year, 18 schools raised a total of HK$387,061.7 by hosting fundraisers in the run up to Christmas. Of special note here was Top School Fundraiser, Discovery Mind Kindergarten, who organised their 10th annual walkathon at Discovery Bay on the sunny morning of 21 November 2015.

- Equally deserving of mention were Yuen Long Public Secondary School who won this year's Most Creative School Award for a fun 17 December 2015 food fest where teachers, students, and PTA members cooked up a feast in the school playground. The school also hosted a 18 December 2015 English singing marathon.

PUBLICITY

- The SCMP and RTHK have always enthusiastically promoted each year's OSC beneficiaries and been quick to tell supporters exactly how and where their donations were to be spent. This year's campaign kept readers and listeners fully informed with over 60 printed articles in the SCMP and 30 broadcast interviews on RTHK.

- To further swell public awareness of OSC 2015, approximately 40 print and 90 outdoor advertisements were produced and shared across all four corners of Hong Kong.

- One of the year's most notable successes was a unique video tie-in between the SCMP and Hong Kong Baptist University's journalism department and its publication, The Young Reporter. Some 50 journalism students subsequently videoed roughly 20 stories about OSC 2015 beneficiaries and fundraising events. Each short film was eventually broadcast on SCMP.tv, with highlights published in the SCMP and the Young Post.

- Students from Bachelor of Arts in English Studies of the City University of Hong Kong (CITYU) helped increase publicity via social media, frequently updating OSC 2015's Facebook and Instagram pages. CITYU and its students also offered vital logistical support to OSC events and set up booths to promote the appeal in other local universities.

FUNDRAISING EVENTS

THIS YEAR,

29 major donors each donated HK$150,000 or over, while 18 school donors raised a total of around HK$387,000, and 16 clubs and associations collectively raised roughly HK$280,000. Joining them in helping disadvantaged Hongkongers were hundreds of individuals and other groups. As in previous years, OSC 2015 marked the unveiling of several new events hoping to put the ‘fun’ into fundraising and boost public awareness for many years to come.

SPECIAL OSC EVENTS

OSC Flat Out Sleigh Ride

Held on the morning of Sat, 21 November 2015 at Hong Kong Disney’s Hollywood Hotel, this first time event inspired 15 corporate and beneficiary teams to build and race cardboard Santa Sleighs against each other. This event proved hugely popular, attracting around 150 OSC participants and attendees and raising HK$228,000.

Christmas Meal Campaign ‘Eat, Drink, and Donate’

Another debut event, the Christmas Meal Campaign saw 22 leading restaurants such as the King Parrot Group, Al Dente, FRITES Belgium on Tap, Jojo Indian Cuisine and El Grande to create special Christmas menus and generously donated 15% of all proceeds raised to OSC.

MBA Challenge

This initiative challenged six teams of MBA students from four top local business schools (The University of Hong Kong, The Chinese University of Hong Kong, The Hong Kong University of Science and Technology and City University of Hong Kong) to raise funds by putting business plans into practice for fully 50 days. All six teams successfully overcame all barriers, raising a total of HK$341,799 and effectively spreading OSC’s message.

Money Talk Charity Breakfast

On 15 December 2015, around 100 iconic business gurus and listeners came along to Grappa’s Cellar and joined RTHK’s special Money Talk Breakfast in aid of OSC. Mr. Charles LI, CEO of Hong Kong Exchanges & Clearing, served as the morning broadcast’s special guest. The event was a great success, earning a total of around HK$100,500 from the sale of entry tickets and various live auctions.

SPORTS EVENTS

Involving competitors' family members and friends, sports fundraisers have long been a much-loved OSC mainstay. The two sports events carried out on behalf of OSC 2015 between November and December 2015 proved every bit as popular as always, raising roughly HK$1,456,000 for this year's deserving causes. OSC 2015 highlights included more than 140 colourfully-dressed squash players who battled it out in the Wing Ding Squash Tournament, plus 12 junior and 15 adult teams in the CBRE Five-A-Side football tournament.

The Hong Kong Rugby Union and local rugby clubs also did their bit for this year's beneficiaries, raising much-needed funds from spectators at the Asia Rugby Sevens Olympic Qualifier and various important year-end matches. Other notable sports attractions included the annual Santa Hash Fun Run and the Bank of America Merrill Lynch Charity Golf Day at Clearwater Bay Golf Club. A family hike along Dragon's Back, Dah Sing Bank's OSC youth basketball match in Southern Stadium and HKU's MBA Class's 8km Santa Fun Run from Kennedy Town to Cyberport were other key sporting highlights.

SCHOOLS

As ever, the annual OSC fundraising drive motivated hundreds of students, teachers, and parents at local schools. In 2015, 18 schools helped raise around HK$387,000. The biggest donation came from Discovery Mind Kindergarten which generated a fantastic HK$135,000 during its 10th annual sponsored hike.

Other schools came up with equally innovative ways to help out, e.g. hot dog lunches, mini fun-fairs, singing competition, charity sales and games.

COMMUNITY GROUPS

Across Hong Kong, different community groups enthusiastically supported OSC 2015, raising around HK$280,000 by organising events for their members and their families, friends and local communities.

About 250 members of Hong Kong's Indian community joined together at Laguna City in Lam Tin and sang Christmas carols as part of the fun fair and online auction the society had organised on behalf of OSC 2015. Throughout December 2015 and January 2016, the Lamma Island community also did their bit by hosting activities such as a Christmas Music Quiz at the Island Bar and the 17th annual Yung Shue Wan Treasure Hunt.

In Sai Kung, Outdoor Fitness teamed up with leading local restaurants and hosted numerous OSC 2015 fundraising parties with a 'flash mob' dance, raffles, and F&B as their highlights. Sai Kung residents also gathered at the Hebe Heaven Yacht Club to compete in their annual OSC Charity Quiz. HKUST's Winter Garage Sale also raised over HK$22,000 for OSC as university staff, students, alumni and family members welcomed bargain hunters to a jamboree selling new and preloved items including books, toys and organic food.

OSC 2015's largest community group donation came from the Police Tactical Unit which collected over HK$100,000 during its annual OSC team building day.

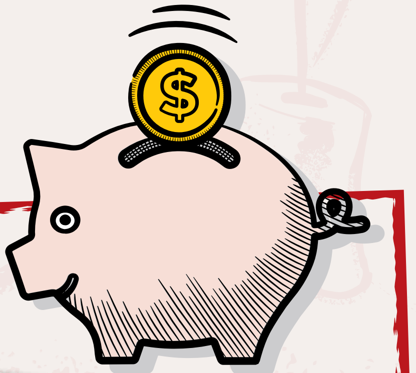
VOLUNTEER VISITS

Aside from donating money, this year's generous corporate volunteers visited roughly 200 disadvantaged youngsters and elderly over the holiday season sharing happy chatter and laughter everywhere they went.

Volunteers from the Maxim's Restaurant Group brought smiles to needy seniors' faces by throwing a delicious roast duck lunch at their Michelin-starred restaurant while their Sino Hotel counterparts pitched in by treating 50 deserving local pupils from Hong Chi Morning Hill School to a tasty lunch buffet. Staff at American Express played their part by hosting an Old Folks' Christmas party at Chung Hok Elderly Center. Senior citizens from Tuen Mun came along to entertainment and property firm Melco's Christmas party at a top seafood restaurant. The Hai Tong Securities' team shared their festive joy by distributing thoughtful gifts to elderly singletons in Tai Wai while Deacons' employees spread their good fortune by treating special needs children to an enjoyable afternoon horse riding session. Last but not least, volunteers from Heng Sang Bank helped primary school kids in Sham Shiu Po with their homework!

DONATION BOXES ACROSS THE CITY

OSC has always valued contributions of all sizes. Gratifyingly, an amazingly large amount of HK$822,000 in small change was harvested from 120 OSC 2015 collection boxes at street stalls, shopping malls, hotels, and retail outlets. One box at Toys'R'Us was found to hold a staggering HK$70,000 while others were so stuffed full of cash that they broke!



THE 'MILLION' EVENTS

The organisers of OSC 2015 would like to extend their very special thanks to the hosts of the mega-events that invariably brought massive cash influxes to each year's beneficiaries. In 2015, specific examples included a UBS Fancy Dress Party (HK$4,200,000), the Morgan Stanley's Directors Choir (HK$3,000,000) plus various Bank of America Merrill Lynch golf, family hike activities and individual donations (HK$2,900,000). Other large donations were raised by Swire's three-day street fair and the Wing Ding squash tournament at the Hong Kong Football Club.

PERSONAL STORIES

TONY LAI, STROKE CHOIR MEMBER

CENTRE FOR COMMUNITY CULTURAL DEVELOPMENT

Tony Lai was a promising fashion designer before having a stroke six years ago. With a sudden loss of physical ability and speech, he had to face changes in life. In his journey of rehabilitation, Tony stopped worrying about his career and treasured his family and friends.

With the support of Operation Santa Claus, CCCD Creative Arts Therapy Service Centre (CATSC) continues its mission by offering "Music Therapy Service" for "Art Empowerment" for both Stroke Patients and their family to discover their inner resources for recovery. Tony's story is part of this magic.

“I appreciated the choir for helping me to recover as a whole, improvement in speech, mood, confidence and sense of achievement” says Tony. “I didn't expect that I could sing but now I am happy to join in the choir, and meet more friends who can understand, support and encourage each other”.

AMY, USER OF LEGAL CLINIC

RAINLILY - ASSOCIATION CONCERNING SEXUAL VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN

Amy has worked for a commercial firm for years. She was sexually harassed by a male colleague over a period of months. The harasser displayed unwelcome attention to her and even molested her. She was seriously disturbed, she felt isolated and distressed. She resigned from the job and sought support from a psychiatrist to manage the emotional pain.

With funds from Operation Santa Claus, RainLily empowers victims of sexual harassment to ensure legal rights and to develop resilience. RainLily collaborates with lawyers who share a belief in gender equality and human rights who help with legal consultations on a pro bono basis.

Amy received free legal advice service from RainLily. “Now I know my rights and how to make formal complaints or to take legal action against sexual harassment” says Amy. “I felt empowered, and I have decided to reclaim my rights and dignity”. Amy's journey is supported by the couselors and the survivor support network of RainLily.

MS LI, HEART TO HEART CLUB COMMITTEE MEMBER

RICHMOND FELLOWSHIP OF HONG KONG

Ms Li's son has been suffering from schizophrenia for several years. It was very difficult for her and other family members to communicate with him. Ms Li could not understand her son's annoying and aggressive behaviour, resulting in unnecessary conflicts between them. She felt very stressed as she did not know where to seek help.

Thanks to the funding from Operation Santa Claus, Ms Li reached out to the Richmond Fellowship of Hong Kong and joined Project I-PROUD. After taking the courses and training workshops, she learnt more about mental illness and related community resources. With enhanced caregiving skills, it was easier to get along with her son.

"I am glad that my family members and I become more positive. I have made progress after receiving services from the Fellowship and thank Operation Santa Claus for their support," says Li.

Now, Ms Li is one of the committee members of Heart to Heart Club (a family mutual help group) where she is eager to help others with experience.

Ms Li (middle) shares her experience in a family mutual help group.

MRS. AU

MAGGIE'S CANCER CARING CENTRE

Mrs. Au, now 59 years old, is a housewife and mother of two youngsters. Her husband was diagnosed with laryngeal cancer in 2011 and recovered after a year of various medical treatment. However, his cancer came back in 2014. Due to her husband's difficulties swallowing and speaking, the daily care of and communication with her husband were made challenging. Nontheless, Mrs. Au still had to take up part-time jobs to support the family financially.

In the midst of cumulative stress and ongoing uncertainty, Mrs. Au was not only physically but emotionally drained. She developed insomnia, experiencing palpitation. This condition persisted even after her husband passed away in 2015.

With her daughter's encouragement, Mrs. Au began to attend regular relaxation programme at Maggie's, funded by Operation Santa Claus, following her husband's death. Through mastering relaxation techniques, Mrs. Au was able to relax herself and her symptoms of anxiety were alleviated gradually.

Mrs. Au said "I am very grateful that I could get more sleep now. Just walking into Maggie's Centre already made me feel relaxed. I look forward to the relaxation sessions at Maggie's each week." With the sense of safety and comfort experienced at Maggie's and the support of Maggie's staff and other users, Mrs. Au began to rebuild her faith in life.

PROJECT MONITORING

All OSC beneficiaries must submit both detailed mid-term and final reports for their funded projects. Each beneficiary organisation will also be asked to make a presentation outlining the project achievements they have made to OSC's Steering Committee. Following commencement of individual projects in September 2016, OSC staff will visit each beneficiary periodically to request information and arrange meetings to monitor the progress of their projects.

PROJECT GOVERNANCE

When applying for OSC funding, potential beneficiaries must outline their organisation's background and core objectives, they must also provide details of their patrons and management structure. In addition to their number of staff and committee members, each potential beneficiary must also provide a list of present and possible future donors. Other mandatory documentary submissions include:

(a) The organisation's Certificate of Incorporation;
(b) Proof of charitable status in Hong Kong;
(c) Organisation's most recent audited financial statement

Each time a beneficiary is selected, WiseGiving of the Hong Kong Council of Social Service (HKCSS) will carry out a thorough due diligence on OSC's behalf. During this process, HKCSS will ask individual beneficiaries about their organisation, board structure, financial accountability and transparency to the public. Potential beneficiaries must also outline what steps they are taking to minimise the likelihood of possible conflicts of interest.

Donors often ask OSC why governance matters so much. The simple answer is that as trusted local media organisations, both the SCMP and RTHK have very high profiles in Hong Kong. As a result, each body remains very aware that all projects involving the raising of either awareness or funds must not only be – but also be seen to be – 100% honest and above board. Ultimately, it is not only the SCMP and RTHK's reputations that are at stake, it is also those of each year's beneficiaries.

06 FINANCIAL HIGHLIGHTS

A RECORD-BREAKING YEAR!

- The HK$21,173,000 income raised in 2015 was the highest OSC had raised in its 28-year history. The majority (95.5%) of donations came from private citizens and businesses, the remainder came from surpluses rolled over from previous years. The total income in OSC 2015 is HK$22,170,000.
- As always, OSC's Steering Committee was scrupulous in keeping administration and fundraising expenses to minimum of around 3%. As a result, well over 96% of contributors' donations will be used to directly benefit those who need it most.
- For further details, please see OSC's full audit report to be published online in October 2016.

Competition law starts in Hong Kong today

Naturally as Chief Executive Officer of the Competition Commission I am very proud and excited that this long awaited day has finally arrived. However it is a significant change for everyone in the Hong Kong SAR. We are all the beneficiaries of this important law.

> “Today is a landmark day in the legal and economic history of Hong Kong. The Competition Ordinance comes into full force and the Competition Commission commences full operation.”

Dr. Stanley Wong, Chief Executive Officer of the Hong Kong Competition Commission

The Competition Commission is committed to using a combination of enforcement actions and advocacy to achieve the goals of the Competition Ordinance.

A sense of fair play is deeply ingrained in the collective psyche of the people of Hong Kong.

The Four Don'ts

- Don't fix prices: includes agreeing on actual prices, a formula to calculate prices or elements of price such as discounts, rebates, promotions or credit terms
- Don't share markets: includes allocating customers by product or geographic area, agreeing not to compete for each other's customers and agreeing not to enter or expand into a competitor's market
- Don't rig bids: includes agreeing who should "win" a bid, supporting the designated winner by refraining from bidding, withdrawing bids or submitting bids with higher prices or unacceptable terms
- Don't restrict output: includes restricting the volume or type of particular goods or services

On the right track

Mak Chun-fung didn't have any professional coaching to help with his running, until he found RUN Inspires, a programme that helps local students achieve their sporting dreams, writes Ben Pang

From Usain Bolt to Mo Farah, all the best runners in the world have coaches who can push them. But what if that runner comes from a housing estate in Sham Shui Po and can't afford an expensive coach or training facilities?

That was exactly the situation Mak Chun-fung found himself in. The 16-year-old runner trained in the playground and ran in the streets without any professional coaching. But he wanted something that would push him to compete in competitions.

The answer came in the form of a free running programme – RUN Inspires – offered by InspiringHK Sports Foundation.

> The training also gives me a good opportunity to learn from one of the top runners in HK

"Regular training helps improve my running skills and stamina. The training also gives me a good opportunity to learn from one of the top runners in Hong Kong – Chan Ka-ho," he said.

Chun-fung describes himself as a bird when he runs. "Running eases my stress. I feel like if I can fly when I run," he said. But as a very shy and passive student, he could have been a caged bird if he hadn't been prompted by his teacher at SKH Saint Mary's Church Mok Hing Yiu College to join the RUN Inspires programme.

Now every Tuesday from 6.30pm to 8.30pm, he takes part in training sessions at Sham Shui Po Sports Ground with his coach, Chan, and 21 other students. Chun-fung said he has learned so much from the training.

"RUN Inspires has boosted my confidence as well as my running skills. I'm motivated to give my best performance at every training session and in every competition because I want to express my gratitude to the organisers and my coach," said Chun-fung.

Chan has also noticed a change in Chun-fun. "When he first started, he didn't have much self-esteem. But now he's more proactive and determined to win. He always takes the lead and trains hard," said Chan.

RUN Inspires has even enabled Chun-fung to enter competitions by paying the entrance fee. Thanks to regular training sessions and coaching, Chun-fung won a silver medal and broke the 1,500m record with a time of 4:44.89 at the Sham Shui Po District Age Group Athletic Meet Competition (Division C) at Sham Shui Po Sports Ground on November 8. He also won a bronze in the 5,000m event.

Chung-fung might not have been as successful without the running programme.

"Local schools only have one or two PE lessons of two hours per week, so students have limited chances to play sports," said Judy Kong, Executive Director for InspiringHK. "Some families can't afford sports classes for their children, so it's really hard for them to try out, enjoy, or master a sport."

Founded in 2012, InspiringHK instils sportsmanship and charity in students. This year, Operation Santa Claus, co-organised by South China Morning Post and RTHK, will raise money to pay for 33 students to receive two years of fencing coaching from InspiringHK.

Korean International School – December 4
They held a Santa Fun Day with more than 30 games and activities. There was a reindeer relay race where students dressed up as reindeers and raced, and a Christmas version of pin the tail on the donkey, called Rudolph's nose.

American International School – December 11
The annual Red and Green Day, where students and teachers are encouraged to come to school in red and green clothes and donate a minimum of HK$20, will be held on December 11.

Kiangsu & Chekiang Primary School, International Section – December 14-18
The school is selling 2016 calendars designed by students, reusable bags and plates, with all proceeds going to charity.
